

SITEJET

Senior Software Engineer - UI Developer (m/f/d)

At Sitejet, we're transforming website design. We're building a platform that replaces the complex, difficult process most designers know with a lightning-fast builder, intuitive automation, and built-in client management system. We're making client sites easier to design than ever before. We have an exciting and challenging journey up ahead, and we're looking for motivated, creative, and driven applicants ready to help us revolutionize this decades-old industry.

You've come to the right place if you're thrilled to work in a growth-driven startup and will be a perfect fit for our fun and dedicated team!
