

Omega: The Revelation of Jesus Christ

House Church Guide

House Church Leaders I would like to encourage you to dig into Josh's messages and be prepared. This is a guide, meant to get conversation started and to refocus the conversation if it gets too far off track. Be sensitive to the spirit and go where He is leading. During this series it will be very important that we go beyond head knowledge to reach the hearts in our house churches.

Jesus is Central

Revelation 1:1-3

The central theme of the Bible is Jesus...

- In the OT He's the promised Messiah.
- In the Gospels He's God in flesh.
- In Acts He's the Holy Spirit giving His Church power
- In the Epistles He's worshipped and taught.
- In Revelation... He's revealed in His risen and glorified self.
 - He's the Faithful Witness
 - The Firstborn of the Dead
 - The Ruler of the Kings of Earth
 - The One who Is, and who Was, and Who is to come
 - He's the Almighty
 - He's the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords.
 - He's the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and End, the First and the Last
 - He's the Great Champion Warrior that overcame the world.
 - He's the rider of the white horse that conquers the nations and judges them by his righteous hand.

If Jesus is all of these different things in the Bible then who is He to you? Why?

The Mind of Christ

1Corinthians 2:14-16

Have you ever had God's word jump off the page at you?

You may have even read it over and over and then all of the sudden.....boom....you see something you were missing.

When has this happened in your life? What did Jesus say in His word that applied to you?

Read-Hear-Keep

Revelation 1:3

Read - What difference does speaking God's word out loud make?

Hear - How often do we think about what is entering our ears?

Keep - How do we keep what is written?

Homework: Reading Revelation out loud with family or friends.